"Our approach will be to note the diversity of viewpoints that made Polish Jewish life the source of modern Jewish life - from Jewish socialist, to Yiddish culture, branches of Zionism, and various Hassidic communities. We will remind people that the Progressive movements (today Reform and Conservative Judaisms) started in the Polish lands beginning in 1803. We will note Jewish involvement in film, literature, and the arts from Arthur Rubenstein to Julian Tuwim." - Rabbi Beliak, Exec. Dir. of Friends of Jewish Renewal in Poland, affiliated with Friends of Jewish Renewal, WUPJ & European Union for Progressive Judaism

Professor Richard Hecht is Professor of Religious Studies at the University of California, Santa Barbara. He offers courses in modern Jewish thought, and religion and culture. He is the author and editor of several books. His research interest include religion and politics in the city of Jerusalem and the religious dimensions of contemporary art. He has visited and given several presentations in Poland and the Czech Republic.
