

November 4, 2021

To our Ayelet Tours travelers:

Travel is back! At least, it feels that way. Our phones are ringing, the emails are pouring in and the outlook for travel in 2022 has improved dramatically. A sense of optimism has entered the world of travel, and as always, we stand ready to help connect you to Israel and the Jewish world.

NEW: For our 2022 departures: No land tour penalty if canceled 91 or more days before departure for deposits by check (for credit card payment, minus $25 per person non-recoverable cost), plus any applicable airline penalties. See full terms HERE.

We pledge to remain as flexible as possible to give you comfort in knowing that your travel plans with us do not come with a greater risk than necessary to allow us to serve you.

Alongside our mission to create memorable journeys of connection, for all of us at Ayelet Tours the health and security of our travelers is our top priority. As travel re-opens, Ayelet Tours expects all participants to comply with any Covid related travel requirements set forth by either the US or destination governments, or any tour service providers.

All of us at Ayelet Tours, along with our worldwide partners, are dedicated to ensuring your trip is a safe and healthy one. You can read more about the steps we are taking towards a healthier tour HERE.

Thank you all for your continued support and partnership. Wishing you and yours all good health, and fulfilling travel experiences!

Shalom,

Diane, Jeff and all of us at Ayelet Tours
