Sharim

Temple Beth Elohim's

Tikun Olam Singers,

Cantor Jodi Sufrin and

Music Director Nick Page

October 20 – November 1, 2020

(As of 7/15/19)

Experience this ancient land from the unique perspective of Israel's culture and history. Join

Sharim's renowned music director, Nick Page, and Temple Beth Elohim's Cantor, Jodi Sufrin, as we enjoy a musical adventure through Jerusalem, Tel Aviv and Haifa.

During our tour we will:

- Experience how music is bringing together Israeli and Palestinian youth groups.
- Join with and learn from Israeli singing groups.
- Bring the joy of song to residents of senior living centers.
- Explore the difference between singing and chanting with members of a piyyutim organization.
- Enjoy Shabbat services and dinner with our sister congregation, Ohel Avraham.

Day 3: Thursday, October 22, 2020: HEALING THROUGH SONG

- Breakfast at our hotel.
- This morning, we visit Yad Vashem, Israel's memorial to the Holocaust, where we view the many moving exhibitions, including their exhibit on Holocaust Art.
- We continue to Hadassah Hospital to view the amazing Chagall windows and to give a concert at a related nursing home.
- This afternoon/evening, a chef leads us through the popular Machane Yehuda market for a sensual immersion, engaging with the vibrant colors, smells and flavors that will be found in this bustling marketplace. We wander through the pyramids of spices, bright-colored exotic vegetables, nuts, olives, and delicious halva creations. Our chef will introduce us to the most characteristic ingredients of the local cuisine and to the Israeli food habits, while we prepare dinner together with our purchases.
- We view the beautiful street portrait art on the closed stall shutters.

Overnight in Jerusalem

Day 4: Friday, October 23, 2020: BRINGING PEOPLE TOGETHER THROUGH MUSIC

- Breakfast at our hotel.
- We enjoy a songfest at Yad L'Kashish, the Lifeline for the Aged. This is an artisan workshop which empowers and supports hundreds of elderly and disabled Jerusalem residents.
- We continue our pre-shabbat day exploring the power of Jewish ideas, texts and values during a hands-on music & art workshop with Rabbi Matt Berkowitz of Kol HaOt.
- This evening, we join one of the local Progressive congregations for Kabbalat Shabbat services, followed by Shabbat dinner at our hotel.

Overnight in Jerusalem

Day 5: Saturday, October 24, 2020: SHABBAT SHALOM!

- Breakfast at our hotel.
- This morning, we enter the Old City for a walking tour through the different quarters, beginning at the David Citadel Museum to the Jewish quarter, continuing to the Arab market (shuk), followed by a stroll along the Via Dolorosa through the Christian quarter.
- We enjoy lunch on own in the Old City.
- This afternoon, we tour the renovated Israel Museum. The galleries range from pop and modern art, back through the Renaissance and Classical periods, with a strong emphasis on Jewish and Israeli archeological history with evidence going back thousands of years. We walk through the iconic Shrine of the Book, which houses the Dead Sea Scrolls, and see the impressive miniature replica of Jerusalem as it was during the Second Temple period.
- Dinner on own this evening.

Overnight in Jerusalem

Day 6: Sunday, October 25, 2020: HIGH-TECH & HAUTE ARTS

- Breakfast and check out of our hotel.
- This morning, we travel to Tel Aviv, the exciting metropolis on the Mediterranean Sea.
- Upon arrival in Tel Aviv, we explore Israel's high-tech advances at the Taglit Innovation Center. This cutting-edge center allows us to learn about the new advancements Israeli start-ups are making in the fields of science, medicine, security and space through their interactive exhibitions.
- Following lunch on own, we meet with Jerusalem Post Palestinian Affairs correspondent, Khaled Abu Toameh, for a lecture entitled "A Snapshot of Palestinian Society".
- Time to relax (and enjoy the beach!)
- We enjoy a night out at Dinner in the Dark, an experience that will tantalize all of your senses, followed by a performance of Not by Bread Alone, at the Nalagaat Center, whose actors are both visually and hearing impaired.

Overnight Tel Aviv

Day 7: Monday, October 26, 2020: TEL AVIV

- Breakfast at our hotel.
- This morning, we visit a local nursing home for a songfest.

- This morning, we travel to Atlit, site of the British Internment camp for thousands of Jewish refugees, who were caught attempting to immigrate to Israel during the British Mandate period.
- We continue to Akko, where we explore the Crusader-era fortifications and British prison as we learn about this historically important port.
- We perform a selection of songs for an area nursing home, fulfilling the mitzvah of bikur cholim and bringing music and brightness to their day.
- We enjoy a panoramic view from atop Mt. Carmel, including the Bahai Temple and Persian Gardens.
- We return to our hotel and enjoy dinner on own.

Overnight in Haifa

Day 11: Friday, October 30, 2020: THE PULSE OF THE NATION

- Breakfast at our hotel.
- This morning, we enjoy a special performance by members of Heartbeat. Heartbeat unites Israeli and Palestinian youth musicians to build critical understanding, develop creative nonviolent tools for social change, and amplify their voices to influence the world around them. As a positive alternative to the normalization of segregation, violence, and racism, Heartbeat creates spaces and opportunities for Palestinian and Israeli youth musicians to build critical awareness, respect, and trust while harnessing creative nonviolent tools for self-expression and social change. Engaging in a sustained music, dialogue, and empowerment process, Heartbeat youth musicians become agents of change; harnessing the tools of creativity to imagine possibilities, ask questions, and publicly address systemic problems such as violence, oppression, and inequality — partnering to create a safe, equitable future for all.

- Next, we visit Rambam Medical Center- the world's largest subterranean hospital. Rambam is the only tertiary hospital in the north of Israel, serving a population of 2 million. We'll meet hospital leadership and learn firsthand their challenges & accomplishments.
- As the sun sets, we join our sister congregation, Ohel Avraham, for Shabbat Services followed by Shabbat dinner together.

Overnight in Haifa
